Sophisticated destination

Nestled at peace

What's in

Welcome to D'presidente,
New Delhi

Where luxury meets elegance nestled at peace, right at the center of the capital of India, where we believe "Athithi Devo Bhawa" meaning Guests are equivalent to god, and are Welcomed.

For past 25 years we have been providing luxury in different paths of life and in different ways, and D'presidente is our first brand in Indian hospitality and business facility. The name d'presidente means "the President" in Spanish which resembles our core value "living life with style and honour" or living life the "Badshah (King) Way".

D'presidente is for the world's most discerning travellers seeking authentic experiences. A distinctive feature of D'presidente is its highly motivated and well trained staff who provide exceptionally attentive, personalised and warm service. The design of D'presidente is modern and has been based on homely lines so as to provide you a Home away from Home and friendly to your pocket. The layout has Deluxe, Luxury and Presidential Suites. The newly constructed and furnished rooms and suits of D'presidente leaves you with loads of treasurable memory to cherish.

D'presidente is committed towards the best environmental and ecological practices in technology, equipment and operational processes. We are also a keen contributor to the conservation of nature and of cultural heritage.
